verse 1:

When I'm all alone and hurting
Your mercy always finds me here
When I feel like I'm drowning
Your voice can make oceans disappear
Oh Your voice can make oceans disappear

chorus:

Nothing compares, there's nothing like
Your mercy
Grace comes again, showing me that You love me

verse 2:

When my past returns to harm me
The cross reminds me You are near When my faith replaces doubting
You say the mountains disappear
Oh your voice can make mountains disappear bridge:

I was sinking but, You were reaching and I'm alive now oh, what a Savior
You reached down and, pulled me out of The darkest places oh, what a Savior
