

You Are Worthy

Words & Music by Chase Buchanan, Lydia Morris, Ryan Callahan

verse 1:

Here in my weakness
Here in my hurt and pain
I feel Your presence holding on to me
When I'm surrounded by all my enemies You're right beside me

pre-chorus:

Lord I will follow You for all of my days
All of my days, You are good
My hands are empty but I'll lift them high and say Lift them high and say, You are good chorus:

Praise is rising up from the ashes
Holy holy, You are Lord
Though You slay me, still my heart sings
You are worthy, You are worthy
You are worthy, You are worthy

verse 2:

My world can crumble
The ground beneath me shake
But that won't stop me from giving You all praise
When I am hurting, You breathe new life in me Right here beside me

bridge: (4 times)

You are making all things new
All things new, all things new
